of Mr A. J. May, Assistant Master in the Government Central School, on a twelve months' leave of absence. Mr May has been a resident of this colony for the past eleven years, and for seven years has been a master in the Government Central School. Mr May has of late years taken considerable interest in musical matters, and during Mr Sangster's absence acted as choirmaster in St. John's Cathedral. He was also Secretary to the Hongkong Choral. Society, and several times conducted at the practices. He was very popular with the boys attending the School, and yesterday, on his embarking, a large number of them. assembled on the wharf drawn up in the form of a guard of honour, and gave three cheers for their departing master. As a Volunteer, he was as ardently enthusiastic as the youngest man in the corps, and his pro-The O. & O. Co.'s steamer Oceanic. with verbial geniality and kindness won the devoted attachment of every member. To prove their attachment, a number of the members subscribed for a small tokenof esteem to Mr Mehta, and had the list been circulated as it might have been, it is for Saigon and this port on Saturday, aimost certain that it would have been signed by all. As it was, a sufficient sum was raised for the purpose, and a handsome silver tankard was purchased. The presentation took place on Thursday afternoon in the office of Lieut, Holmes in the presence of a few of the subscribers. Lieut, Holmes opened the proceedings by explaining what had been done, and then Bergeant Tomlin, as the senior non-commissioned officer, made the presentation. In doing so, he expressed the warm esteem in which Mr Mehta was held by the whole corps, and 20th inst, and may be expected here concluded by saying that they all hoped he would return by next sesson in good health and spirits. Mr. Mence resulting the Litables for the unexpected honour the non-commissioned officers and men but done him in and may be expected here about the a very feeling manner, and said he would always prize highly the token he had rewerp and London, left Singapore on the ceived from the members of a corps with 22nd instant, and may be expected which his connection had been of the most pleasant nature and in whose welfare he took the deepest interest. Wn would call attention to the advertisement announcing the benefit to be given Mr and Mrs Beaumont, members of the Moscotte Opera Company. Though Mrs Beaumont (Miss Stella) has taken none of the leading characters, she has several times distinguished horself by giving exceedingly clever and original impersonations, notably as Permella in Boccaccio, and old Sheelah in 'The Lily of Killarney; and generally her acting and singing has been favourably received. An excellent programme has been arranged, and this fact, together with the popularity of the beneficiares, ought to draw a good house.

THE first meeting of the Hongkoug Rifle Association, which was to have come off today, has been postponed to Monday, when all the events in the programme will be shot off. The cause of the postponement it is needless to say, was the drenching downpours of rain and the thick clouds of mist that have been hanging about all day, which would make shooting very difficult and uncertain, besides putting the shooters to great inconvenience. Colonel Anderson, Mr. Woodin, and the other members of the Committee were on the ground, but, of course, they had to decide to put the competitions off. The principa grents in the programme, we have already noticed. All that remains to say is to express the hope that the new Association may be fortunate in securing more favourble weather on Monday. The Committee tried hard to make arrangements for providing a tiffin on the Range, but they found it impossible to do so.

Tus Police authorities claim that they have at last dropped upon the alleged head centre agent of the Tsz Fa lottery. A summons was got against him some time ago by Inspector Mathieson, but he eluded at the time the clutches of the law. This morning, however, this individual, whose name is Chui Akwon, was brought before Mr Mitchell-Innes at the Police Court on a charge of unlawfully keeping agencies for dealing in lottery tickets, and with disobeying a summons. The evidence to-day against the leader of this notorious swindling lottery, the connection with which has led many a poor Chinaman to seek refuge for his mislortune in a drop of several feet, was not of the most direct character, and the case was remanded till Thursday afternoon, the bail being fixed at $2000. The first witness called was Ui Acheung, who said he saw a little boy come out o the house, 2. Rozario Street, in which defendant lived. Witness followed the boy as far as Lascar Road, where he saw him hold up a piece of paper to a crowd, who then dispersed. The next day he saw defendant go to the basement floor of the house opposite to Union Church. Shortly after that he saw the boy come out, followed closely by the defendant, but did not go on the track of the boy on this occasion. The following day much the same thing occurred, and the informant noticed that the boy had one hand clenched as if it contained something: There was a window in the house opposite Union Church, through which one could see into the room. The house, which the witness described as a synagogue, had three doors which led into Peel Street, Graham Street, and Staunton Street. The informant had apparently taken a peep into this room to see what was to be seen, but his curiosity had not been rewarded, for all he could discover was a bed and some furniture. He had, however, seen a table outside. A CASE of lead poisoning of a whole family is reported by the St. Petersburg Med. Wichenschrift to have recently occurred, and to have been traced by Dr. Bernstell, who attended the patients, to the uso of toa. An analysis of the tea by Professor Werigo detected the presence of a considerable quantity of exide of lead, large particles of which could be seen by the naked eye. The tea had been bought at a shop in Odessa, and Dr. Werige found oxide of lead in two packets of tea which he obtained from the same place. He believes the occurrence to be explained by the fact that the tea is packed in China ; and that occasionally, from causes which appear to lie in the tea itself, exidation of the metal takes place.

AN unusually rapid rise and fall in the thermometer took place at Yokohama on the 14th instant, which is worth recording. At 8 a.m. this instrument registered 68 Far., the wind at the time blowing strong from the south. A gradual rise followed until 4 p.m., when the temperature became 83,90, and the atmosphere most oppresaive. Shortly after 4 o'clock there was a lull for a few minutes, after which the wind suddenly chopped round and blew hard from the eastward of north, occasioning a rapid decrease in the temperature which at 5.30 fell to 69.80, at 6.30 to 59, and at 9 p.m. to 58 Far. It is not often we are subjected to a change of 25.90 degrees of heat within the space of a few hours. - Japan Gazette.

On a recent occasion, the Vicercy of Kwangtring entertained at dinner two foreign gentlemen. One of them was until recently a member of Her Majesty's service and is now a plenipotentiary of the highest finance, the other is an officer in the German sorvice. On the following day the Official Gazette in Canton contained an aunouncement 'The expectant Lieutenant Liang Wei-pin reports having brought two foreign lawbreakers to the Yamen in custody, as ordered.' The Cantonese are chuckling over the coincidence of the Vicerov's entertaining foreigners and the announcement in his Guzette; which they understand to refer to his guests. It would be interesting to know whether the entertainment has in the one case been represented in despatches as a proof of a coming era of railways and loans and in the other as an evidence of German influence in China .- N.-C. D. News.

This is the kind of justice which rejoices the hearts of the newspaper reporters of America Says the Alta California :- It will be remembered that about a year ago the Chinese residents of the city of Eureka. in Humboldt county, California, at the request of many citizens, quietly folded their tents and silently stole away. In January last a suit was commenced in the United States Circuit Court on behalf of 56 of the banished Chinamen, to recover 2132,000 damages from the city of Eureka: 275,000 of this amount is claimed for injuries to property, and $58,000 for being driven from the city and for loss of business. Judge Buck of Humboldt appeared for the defendant city, and upon his motion Judge Sawyer has decided that all of the latter amount (claimed for damage for driving them away and for breaking up of their business) shall be struck out of the complaint. This leaves only the claim for injuries to property; and as no property was injured or molested, this decision virtually disposes of this important case in favor of the city of Eureks.

SERIOUS FIRE IN BANGKOK. We had another serious fire on Tuesday, 13th inst. destroying the rice mill, and godowns of Mr Hock Poh, situated in the district of Sannay on the western side of the river. It appears the fire commenced in the mill part of the premises about 3.30 a.m. and spread with great rapidity, owing to the light combustible material of which the building was composed. All efforts to check the spread of the flames were unavailing, although it is believed that had proper means been used at the commencement under European supervision the fire might have been confined to the building in which it originated. There were no Europeans employed on the premises and the whole property was destroyed, including a large quantity of milled rice and The damage is estimated at $80,000, and the property is not insured.

She has now annexed Burmah and her designs can now be still more readily perceived. China has now to look after France on the southern frontier, and on England on the west; and although these two countries are for the present on mutually friendly terms, they would, if any designs were contemplated against China, have no difficulty in coming to a friendly agreement for that purpose. The English are always in dread lest their plans should be suspected, and by making use of China's the rattan, but found he had no power to fear of Russin, and by pretending to be with a title to the Governorship for a single burdened with her own internal affairs, and action of Turkey. against other nations. It can be seen England is seeking to monopolise all advantages to be derived from trade. Robert Hart was afraid to give up his great power as Inspector-General of Customs, and declined the honour of being made British Minister. He is now trying to get the Chinese navy into his hands, as well as the Customs, and has caused naval officers to be sent out here from England. "I visited the Yang-wei and Chao-unna

The style of Chinese in which the insinuations of this famous German naval officer of many years standing are written is certainly that of an adept in the Chinese language. It is not very difficult to surmise whose pen has been placed at the service of his thoughts, nor to spot which foreigner has been placed them in form. There is much room or thought about all this affair, as to the persons who all had a finger in it. Let those concerned do their own thinking. The fact is explicit : the consequences are not hard to deduce.

ENGLAND'S PREMIER IN BAD HUMOR. New York. March 23d. - The Herald's London special to-day says: Gladstone in the House of Commons last night looked unusally weak, weary and perplexed. While only a listener during a motion of Howard Vincent to increase the estimates for the Volunteers, Gladstone's face flushed, and he appeared to be laboring under great excitement. This broke out in his answering speech, which was vehemently delivered and with many personalities. He however. beat the motion, but by the narrow majority of 21. The Telegraph calls his speech a lecture and a sound castigation administered to the luckless Howard Vincent and an opposition almost too much astonished to groan. The Tory Post is bitter on the speech, describing the Premier as violating etiquette in allowing the War Minister to answer Mr Vincent, and using the language of passion, sarcasm and abuse. Even the Liberal News describes the speech as one of extraordinary vehemence.

FIGHTING IN MADAGASCAR. London, March 23d.—An African mail steamer, which arrived at Plymouth to-day. brings news of desperate fighting between the French and Hovas in Madagascar. About the end of February, the Hovas, under General Willoughby, attacked 3,000 French troops, routed them with heavy loss, and pursued them to Lamatine. French liouses and stores in Lamatine were shelled by the Hoyas and destroyed. The Hoyas then returned to the Capital. Their losses were small. A few days later General Sherrington surprised 4.000 Sakalovas preceded by Frenchmon and three machine guns. The Sakalovas were routed, forty being killed and many wounded. This is the first news of a fresh rupture in Madagascar, and has created a great sensation.

SWEEPING REFORMS FOR RUSSIA. New York, March 21. The Herald's St. Petersburg special says : Count Tolstoi and his henchman Pazookhine are preparing two of the most sweeping measures introduced in Russia this generation. One sims at reform in the local government by practically restoring to the nobles the control of affairs with regard to the passantry. The other measure, which Count Tolato himself has taken in hand, provides for the appropriation of wealthy Polish landowners in the provinces adjoining Poland proper for the benefit of small tensuts. THE OBJECTIONABLE WINANE AGATM. New York, March 21. - The World's London special says: Koss R. Winans, the ex-American who made himself unpopular by his selfish management of his Scotch catates, has again become object of general indignation through the report that he intends to close the Hotel Struy at Strathglass, the only good hotel in that beautiful tourist district. Numerous petitions of protest will be presented before the Licensing Court, which meets next month, and an effort will be made to have the hotel kept open as a piece necessary for the accommodation of the travelling public.

Ningpo, 16th April, 1886. Mr Kopsch, who has held the post of Commissioner of Customs at this port for over a year, proceeds on leave of absence, and has this day handed over charge to Mr Kleinwachter. During his short tenure of office. Mr. Kopsch did a great deal for Ningpo which no other Commissioner would ever have attempted to do. Shortly after taking over charge from Mr Grimani, he commenced to work indefatigably in support of the Bund scheme and if this has hung fire for some time, the fault is certainly not his, but it is owing to its having been pigeon-holed in the Office of H.B.M.'s Legation at Poking. I have much pleasure to inform you, however, that it is now progressing favourably. Mr. Kopsch took a lively interest in everything counected with the welfare of the community and he was also the prime mover in all the entertainments during the past winter, to the success of which he greatly contributed by his excellent violoncello-playing. During his residence among us Mr Kopsch succeeded in gaining the esteem and respect of all those who came in contact with him either in his private or official capacity. have no doubt the community will join me in wishing him bon voyage; and, if on his return to China, he should pay Ningpo a visit, we trust he will have the pleasure of seeing the work which he commenced fulfilled .- Shanghai Mercury Cor.

THE CHINESE LEGATION EN FETE. The Pall Mall Gozette writes of the reception given by Marquis Tseng in London on the 5th March as follows :--

Of the hundreds (there are said to have been over a thousand invitations) who crowded the salcone of the Marquis and Marchieness Teong on Monday to testify their respect for a man who, as the Spectator once remarked, has done more to elevate our notion of Chinese statesmanship than fifty years of provious contact had done. there must have been many who recollected the splendid mausion in Portland-place in bygone days as the hospitable home of M. Van de Weyer, the celebrated Belgian Minister to the Court of St. James's. Except, perhaps, Musaras Pasha, no foreign Envoy spent so long a period of unbroken service in London as M. Van de Weyer. and none was so generally popular. Even before his time the house was known as the London home of the Dukes of Richmond. whonce it is still called Richmond House; and we believe that the mother of the present Duke died there. But it is doubtful whether, under any of its provious occuparits, so large and important an assemblage gathered there as mot on Monday night to Liu Yung-fu is gone. The General, I attend what will probably be the last recepam told, has been duly invited to a clan | tion of the Marquis Teong. Many of the 'old China hands,' if thor were of a reflective turn, must have felt, when they saw a highly-placed Chinese lady with her daughters standing by the opportunity for explaining the names of the Marquis's daughters, which have puzzled many readers of the Court Circular and other fusbionable prints. The daughter of the Marquis is called Lady Fourseswoods Li, the second Lady Blossom Isong. The former is married to a son the great Li Hung Chaug, and as ladies in China, as well as in England, take on marriage the names of their husbands. this lady exchanged the paternal name of Taong for that of Li. The other is the personal. as we should call it, the Christian, name. It is the custom in China, Japan, and other Oriental countries to call girls by some pretty name, most generally that of some beautiful natural object, or sometimes the names of two or three natural objects are placed together. Major Knollys's views about the work of Protestant missionaries-he has conceived a great but not quite intelligible liking for their Roman Catholic rivals-are of a piece with his views on Chinaand the Chinese, and it is only charitable to him to suppose that he has obtained them from some practical jokers among his countrymen in Hongkong. Has he ever heard of the incalculable benefits conferred by missionaries in China on their countrymen? Does he know that the greatest dictional of the Chinese and English language was written by a missionary? Has he heard of the works of three missionaries. Williams, Doolittle, and Gray, or of the name of the greatest of living Chinese scholars, who was a missionary! Even in chronicling the small-beer of the English settlements in China, Major Knollys-who, by the way, appears to be a little doubtful as to whother it was Mr Forster or the late Mr Fawcett who wrote a manual of political cconomy-does not greatly shine. He speaks of the settlement at Shanghai as a Ropublic with a Judge, Sir Henry Rennie, lent by the British Government, who in himself is the only faint trace of Imperial authority. The Judge's name is not corgiven. The Shanghai settlement closely resembles other settlements in Chins. and is not a Republic, unless an ordinary. municipal council for attending to reads. lighting, police, &c., can be so designated. The Judge is not lest by the British Government, but is a kind of superior Consular Judge, to whom appeals from Consular Courts are, brought; and he lives in Shanghai only because it is a central place, and he is paid out of the Consolidated He is not the only impersonation of imperial authority, for in Shanghai there are also a consul, a vice consul, and a consular staff, the chief official among whom exercises the same authority as at every other port in the Far East. English Life in China reads more like a caricature of the facts than anything else.

A WOMAN'S SUFFERING AND

GRATITUDE. A VOICE FROM AUSTRIA. Near the village of Zillingdorf, in Lower Austria, lives Maria Haas, an intelligent industrious woman, whose story of physical suffering and final relief, as related by herself, is of interest to English 'I was employed,' she says, the work of a large farmhouse. Overwork brought on sick headache, followed by deathly fainting and sickness of the stomach, until I was unable to retain either food or drink. I was compelled to take to my bod for several weeks. Getting little better from rest and quiet. I sough to do some work, but was soon taken with pain in my side, which a little while seemed to spread over my whole body, and throbbed in my every limb. This was followed by a cough and shortness breath, until finally I could not sew, and took to my bed for the second, and, as thought, for the last time. My friends told me that my time had nearly come, and that I could not live longer than when the trees put on their green once more. Then I happened to got one of the Seigel pamphlets. I read it, and my dear mother brought me a bottle of Seigel's Syrup, which I took exactly according to directions, and I had not taken the whole of it before I felt a great change for the better. My last illness began Jupa 3rd, 1882, and continued to August 9th, whon I began to take the Syrup. Very supn I could do a side of her husband to receive their guests, little light work. The cough left me, and that even China has travelled far in a few I was no more troubled in breathing. Now years. By-the-by, this may be a favourable I am perfectly cured. And oh, how happy I am! Da. J. COLLIS BROWNE'S CHLORODYNE

(Ex Army Med. Staff) IS THE ORIGINAL AND ONLY GENUINE.

CAUTION .- Vice-Chancellor Sir W. P. Wood stated that Dr. Collis Browne wa undoubtedly the inventor of Chlorodyne; that the story of the defendant Freeman being the inventor was deliberately untrue, which he regretted had been sworn to. Eminent Hospital Physicians of London stated that Dr. J. Collis Browne was the discoverer of Chlorodyne; that they prescribe it largely, and mean no other, than Dr. Browne's. See Times, July 12, 1864. The public, therefore, are cautioned against using any other than

DR. J. COLLIS BROWNE'S CHLORODYNE.

REMEDIAL USES AND ACTION. This invaluable remedy produces quiet refreshing sleep, relieves pain, calms the system; restores the deranged functions, and stimulates healthy action of the secretions of the body, without creating any of those unpleasant results attending the use of opium. Old and young may take it at all hours and times when requisite. Thousands of persons testify to its marvellous good effects and wonderful cures, while medical men extol its virtues most exten-

CHLORODYNE is admitted by the profession to be the most wonderful and valuable remedy ever discovered.

CHICRODYNE is the best remedy known for Coughs, Consumption, Bronchitis, Asthma: CHLORODYNE effectually checks and arrests those too often fatal diseases Diphtheria, Fever, Croup, Ague. CHLORODYNE acts like a charm in Diarrhosa, and is the only specific in Cholera and Dysentery. CHLORODYNE effectually cuts short all attacks of Epilepsy, Hysteria, Palpitation CHLORODYNE is the only palliative in Neuralgia, Rheumatism, Gout, Cancer, Toothache, Meningitis, &c. From Symes & Co., Pharmaceutical Chemists, Medical Hall, Simla, January 5.

1880. To J. T. Davenport, Esq., 33, Great Russell Street, Bloomsbury, London .-Dear Sir, we embrace this opportunity of congratulating you upon the wide-spread reputation this justly-esteemed medicine, Dr. Collis Browne's Chlorodyne, has earned for itself, not only in Hindostan, but all over the East. As a remedy of general utility, we much question whether a better STOMACH, HEARTBURN, HEADACHE, GOUT is imported into the country, and we shall be glad to hear of its finding a place in every Anglo-Indian home. The other brands, we are happy to say, are now relogated to the native bazaars, and, judging from their sale, we fancy their sojourn there will be but evanescent. We could multiply instances ad infinitum of the extraordinary efficacy of Dr. Collis Browne's Chlorodyne in Diarrhoea and Dysentery, Spasms, Cramps, Neuralgia, the Vomiting of Pregnancy, and as a general sedative, that have occurred under our personal observation during many years. In Choleraic Diarrhosa, and even in the more terrible forms of prisingly controlling power. We have never used any other form of this medicine than Collis Browne's, from a firm conviction that it is decidedly the best, and also from a the part of the chemist to prescriber and patient alike. We are, sir, faithfully yours, Symes & Co. Members of the Pharm. Society of Great Britain, His Excellency the Viceroy's Chemists.

Extract from the General Board Health, London, as to its efficacy in Cholera: - So strongly are we convinced of the immense value of this remedy that we cannot too forcibly urge the necessity of adopting it in all cases.1

CAUTION. None genuine without the words Dr. J. Collis Browne on the Government Stamp, Overwhelming medical testimony accompanies each bottle.

A WEEKLY JOURNAL.

TS PUBLISHED to suit the Departure of each English and FRENCH MAIL Steamer for Europe. Formerly the Overland issue was published fortuightly; but as it was deemed of special importance that a weekly budget of news should be prepared it was decided to issue it weekly. Subscribers at Home, and those at the Coast Ports and in the interior, who find the Overland edition a convenient form of newspaper for their perusal, will welcome the change. The Overland China Mail, now a weekly compendium of nows from the Far East, contains special Commercial intelligence, special tables of Shipping, and other information. The various Reports of Courts and Meetings, and all other news, are given in full as they appear in the Daily issue. The attention of Advertisers is directed to a weekly newspaper, which is circulated among old China 'handa' and others, both at home and in the Far East, who do not take the daily journals. The Overland China Mail will be regularly posted from the China Mail Office to subscribers, on their addresses being forwarded

THE CHINESE MAIL.

THIS paper is now issued every day. The subscription is fixed at Four Dollars per annum delivered in Hongkong, or Ten Dollars Forty Cents including postage to Coast ports. It is the first Chinese Newspaper ever issued under purely native direction. The chief support of the paper is of course derived from the native community, amongst whom also are to be found the guarantors and securities necessary place it on a butiness and legal footing. The projectors, basing their estimates upon the most reliable information from the various Ports in China and Japan,from Australia, California, Singapore, Penang, Saigon, and other places frequented by the Chinese.—consider themselves justified in guaranteeing a large and eyer-increasing circulation. The advantages offered to advertisers are therefore unusually great, and the foreign community generally will find it to their interest to avail themselves of

THE CHINA REVIEW. PUBLISHED BI-MONTHLY, TENTH TEAL.

HIS Review, which was intended to meet the wants of many students of Chinese caused by the discontinuance of Notes and Queries on China and Japan, has reached its Thirteenth Volume. The Review discusses those topics which are uppermost in the minds of students of the 'Far East' and about which every intelligent person connected with China or Japan is desirous of acquiring trustworthy information. It includes many interesting Notes and original Papers on the Arte, Sciences, Ethnology, Folklore, Geography, History, Literature, Mythology, Natural History, Antiquities, and Social Manners and Customs, etc., etc. of China, Japan, Mongolia, Tibet, and the Far East generally. Recently a new de- sonder, by destruction by fire, or shipwreck, parture has been taken, and the Review now gives, papers on Trade, Commerce, and Descriptive notes of Travel by well-known writers. It was thought that by extending the scope of the Review in this direction, the Magazine would be mademore generally.

The Review department receives special attention, and ondeavours are made to present a careful and concise record of Literature on China etc., and to give critiques embodying aketches of the Most recent works on such topics. Authors and Publishers are requested to forward works to Editor, China Review, care of China or any of the Modern Languages are received. The papers are contributed by the members of the various Consular, the Imperial Customs, and Hongkong Services, and also by the Missionary bodies amongst whom a high degree of Chinese scholarship is assiduously cultivated. Amongst the egular contributors are Drs. Chalmers, Eitel, Bretschneider, Hirth, and Hance, Professor Legge, and Messrs Balfour, Watters, Stent, Phillips, MacIntyre, Groot, Jamieson, Faber, Kopsch, Parker, Playfair, Giles, and Piton, all well-known names, indicative of sound scholarship and thorough

The China Review * * * has an excollent table of contents.'- Celestial Empire. 'The Publication always contains subjects of interest to sojourners in the Far East and the present issue will hold favourable if not advantageous comparison, with preceding numbers.'-Celestial Empire.

This number contains several articles of interest and value."-North-China Herald. The China Review for September October fully maintains the high standard excellence which characterises that publiation, and altogether forms a very interesting and readable number. teorologists will find an interesting and valuable contribution by Dr. Fritsche, on "the Amount of Precipitation (Rain and Snow) of Peking," showing the results of observations made at the Imperial Russian Observatory at Peking, from 1841 to 1880. " Notes on the Dutch Occupation of Formosa," by Mr. Geo. Phillips, contains some interesting information, although much of it is second-hand. The Notices of New Books include a most generous and appreciative review of "The Divine Classic of Nan-Hua," and the Notes and Queries are as usual very interesting.'-North-China

Daily News. 'A substantial and reliable Review which all students of China and the Chinese would do well to patronise.'-Chrysanthemum.

The November-December number of the China Review contains less variety than usual, but the few articles are very interesting. The opening paper by Mr Herbart A. Giles on "The New Testament in Chinese" treats of a question that must necessarily be of great importance in the eyes of all missionaries. Mr E. H. Parker's "Short Journeys in Szechuen" are continued, and a goodly instalment of these travels in the interior of China is given. Mr F. H. Balfour contributes a paper of some length entitled "The Emperor Cheng, founder of the Chinese Empire," which will be read with genuine interest by students of Chinese history. A few short notices of New Books and number of Notes and Queries, one of which "On Chinese Oaths in Western Borneo and Java" might appropriately have been placed under a separate heading, complete the number.'-H.K. Trubner's Oriental Record contains the The present publication, judging by the number now before us, is intended to occupy a position, as regards China and the neighbouring countries, some what similar to that which has been filled in India by the Calcutta Review . The great degree of attention that has been bestowed of late years upon the investigation of Chinese literature, antiquities, and social developments, to say nothing of linguistic studies, has led to the accommulation of important stores of information, rendering some such channel of publicity as is now provided extremely desirable; and contributions of much interest may fairly be looked or from the members of the foreign consular services, the Chinese Customs' corps, and the missionary body. among whom a high degree of Chinese scholarship is now assiduously cultivated. and who are severally represented in the first number of the Review by papers highly creditable to their respective authors .. Some translations from Chinese novels and plays are marked by both accuracy and freshness of style; and an account of the career of the Chinese poet-statesman of the eleventh sentury, Su Tung-p'o, by Mr. E. C. Bowra, le not only historically valuable, but is also distinguished by its literary grace. Beside notices of new books relating to China and allowed to purchasers of Ten or more copies. the East, which will be a useful feature of the Review, if carried out with punctuality This Standard Work on the Chinese Lan-, and detail, we are glad to notice that guage, constructed on the basis of Kanghi's Notes' and Queries' are destined to find a place in its pages also. It is to be One Hour, on Chinese subjects may evoke a similar degree of literary zeal to that which was displayed during the lifetime of its predeconsor in the field, and that the China Review may receive the support necessary to beure Indemnity for the Loss of a Registered Article. The Post Office is not legally responsible for the safe delivery of Registered correspondence, but it is prepared to make good the contents of such correspondence lost while passing through the Post, to the extent of $10, in certain cases, provided :-1. That the sender duly observed all the conditions of Registration required, 2. That the letter was securely enclosed in a reasonably strong envelope. 3. That application was made to

Postmaster General of Hongkong immediately the loss was discovered, the envelope being invariably forwarded with such application unless it also is lost. 4. That the Postmaster General is satisfied that the loss occurred whilst the correspondence was in the custody of the British Postal administration in China, that it was not caused by any fault on the part of the nor by the dishonesty or negligence of any person not in the employment of the Hongkong Post Office. 5. No compensation can be paid for mere damage to fragile articles such as portraits, watches, handsomely bound books, &c., which reach their destination, although in a broken or deteriorated condition.

Missed or Delayed Correspondence. When correspondence has been missent or delayed (both of which are liable to happen occasionally) all that the addresses need do is to note on the cover, Sent to _____ or Received at 7 p.m., or as the case may be, and forward it, without any other writing whatever, to the Postmaster General. This should be acted on the first time cause of complaint occurs; it is a
